MONDAY, FEBRUARY 1. 1742.

7. 2065.

Since our last arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Lintz, Jan. 23. N.S.

Immediately after the Gr. Duke of Tuscany's Arrival in the Army commanded by the Velt-Marshall the Count de Khevenhuller, the numerous Garison of French and Bavarians in this City was again summon'd to surrender, and upon the French Lieutenant-General the Count de Segur's obstinate Refusal, it was attack'd this Morning by the Queen of Hungary's Forces with so much Vigour, that after it had suffer'd Cannonading and Bombardment for twelve Hours, it was oblig'd to capitulate: The Conditions are, That they shall march out with all the Military Honours, and not serve against the Queen of Hungary for the Space of a Year. The French are to retire towards Donawert on the other Side of the Danube, and to stay there till the Middle of April, after which they are to return to France; and the Bavarians are to be canton'd in the Upper Palatinate.

This City, which is the Capital of Upper Austria, lies upon the Danube, about 95 Miles W. from Vienna, and is a neat City, built after the Italian Fashion, all the Houses being of White Free Stone, and there's a large square Piazza, adorn'd with two noble Fountains. It has a good Castle on a Hill, and a spacious handsome Market-place, with two Fairs a Year; viz. at Easter and Bartholomew-tide, much frequented by Foreigners. This is the City to which the Emperor retir'd during the Siege of Vienna, and its Situation is the most pleasant of any Town in his Dominions, especially the Suburbs on the other Side of the River, which chiefly consist of the Houses of the Nobility and Gentry, and are join'd to the Town by a large Wooden bridge.

Dresden, Jan. 14. N.S. We have an Account from here, that a Company of Brewers having been insulted by the French Soldiers, they set down their Casks and fell upon the Frenchmen, of whom six were kill'd in the fray; and that a Message was afterwards sent to the Commander in the Name of their whole Body, that unless such Insults were discontinued, they would endeavour to free themselves by Force: In consequence of this and other Disturbances, it has been thought necessary to disarm the Burghers of that Town, and by way of better Precaution against a Siege or a Surprise, to keep the Moldaw open by continually cutting the Ice: It is likewise said, that at Passau the Commander of that Place has disarm'd the Inhabitants.

Hambourg, Jan. 26. N.S. It was reported Yesterday, that the young Duke of Holstein had pass'd Dantzick, and that the Duke of Brunswick, with his Dukes and Children, were detain'd at Narva, by an Order from Petersburg, till such time as that Prince should be safely arriv'd in the Russian Dominions.

IRELAND.

Dublin, Jan. 23. By Letters from Kinsale we hear, that the Captain of the Carracca Ship, brought in there by his Majesty's Ship the Superbe, has his Liberty to walk about the Town, and that he has made a Discovery to Capt. Harvey of three Casks of Pistoles, which were hid in the Ballast of the Ship.

Last Week was married at Cork, Anthony Jephson, Esq; Member of Parliament for Mallow, to Miss Vesey, Daughter of Agmondestham Vesey, Esq; deceased, a Gentlewoman of great Merit, Beauty, and a large Fortune.

The young Son of the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Duncannon, is dead.

Edward Riggs, Esq; only Son of the late Edward Riggs, Esq; late one of the Commissioners of this Kingdom but last of Great Britain, is married to Miss Pigott, Daughter of Southwell Pigott, of the Queen's County, Esq; a young Lady of a large Fortune and great Accomplishments.

On Tuesday last was married to Miss Trotter, Daughter of Dr. Thomas Trotter, Judge of his Majesty's Court of Prerogative, William Stewart, Esq; Son of Counsellor Stewart on Usher's Quay, a Lady of fine Accomplishments, great Beauty, and a Fortune of 6000 l.

Robert Robinson, M. D. Son of the celebrated Physician Bryan Robinson, is chosen Anatomy Lecturer of our University, in the room of Dr. Foresight who hath resign'd.

Last Saturday died Mr. James Arbuckle, Author of several ingenious Performances both in Prose in Verse. To his refin'd Taste of the Classics, he had treasur'd a copious Knowledge of ancient and modern History, Morality, and Politicks. He was an affectionate Friend, a cheerful Companion, and an honest Man. By his Death two Places, one in the Post-office and another in the Custom-house, are vacant.

On Saturday last one Fitzsimons a Slater, who had 24 Indictments found against him, was most severely whipped thro' this City. Thomas Reed, Esq; one of our High Sheriffs, attended all the Time to see if he had Justice done him for his Villanies; and he was likewise guarded by a Party of Soldiers, to prevent his being rescued by any of his Accomplices. When he came back to Newgate Mr. Reed gave the Hangman a handsome Gratuity for the faithful Discharge of his Office. The Villain before he set out to be whipt, drank two Hotpots and a Pint of Brandy, to fortify him against the Pain of the Lashes.

LONDON, February 1.

Letters of the 6th ult. from Milan say, the King of Sardinia is still inflexible to the Offers of France and Spain.

Some particular Letters from Switzerland say, that the whole Canton of Lucern has embrac'd Lutheranism; and that the Pope's Nuncio was retir'd out of the City, that he might not be an Eye-witness of the Publication of it.

There are Advices from Constantinople, by the Way of Venice, that the Curds, a People who inhabit along the Euphrates, have withdrawn themselves from the Grand Signior's Dominion, and own'd Kouli Kan, the Sophi of Persia, for their Sovereign, who has actually committed Hostilities against the Porte, and seems preparing for a fresh Enterprize against Bagdad.

'Tis said that the Ministers of the ancient Families of Germany, who have held their Assemblies at Offenbach, have bespoken some Silver Gilt Plate to be made for the Lutheran Church there, which has hitherto had none but Pewter Vessels.

The Vicars-General of the Archbishoprick of Cologne, and several other Dioceses, have receiv'd Letters from Rome, enjoining them not to grant Dispensations during the ensuing Lent; for fear left too great an Indulgence in that Article, should in the End defeat the necessary Abstinence in that Season.

They write from Marseilles, that the Algerines having not been able to procure the Restitution of their Corsair-which was lately taken by the Spanish Gallies off of Toulon, the Dey put all the French Merchants settled in his Country for a Fortnight in Irons.

Just as the Letters of the 18th ult. from Ratisbon came away, they had a Report that the Austrians had taken Passau.

The Letters from Francfort say there's a great Number of Princes and Counts there, and more still expected, to see the Emperor's Coronation, which 'tis said will be on next Wednesday, the Day appointed by the States General for a solemn Day of Thanksgiving, Fasting and Prayer: The Ordonnance or Proclamation for which Fast is as follows:

WHEREAS the Almighty has, thro' his adorable Providence, deliver'd this State, from its first Establishment to the present, from many and great Dangers, and has preserved it in such a Manner, that by his infinite Goodness and Long-suffering it has been maintain'd in its Full Liberty and Religion; that Peace has continu'd its Reign there the last Year; and that the Inundations, whose sad Effects were felt in many Places, together with the excessive Price of Provisions, are considerably diminish'd; we should be ungrateful, if in all this we did not acknowledge the Divine Goodness: Nor can we help giving a particular Attention to the Troubles that have happen'd for some Time past in Europe, which in several Places have been attended with fatal Wars, that produce the Overthrow of Kingdoms and Provinces; so that we have but too great Reason to fear, that notwithstanding our Love to Peace, and the Care we have taken to preserve it, the Scourge will extend to this State. For this Reason we are oblig'd by Precaution to arm more than usual for our own Security and lawful Defence; the rather because we see that almost all the Powers of Europe have augmented their Forces very much, and that a great Number of Foreign Troops are posted near our Frontiers; which cannot but give us Uneasiness, as being ignorant of the Decrees of God concerning this Country, and having Reason to fear that he will withdraw his favourable and merciful Hand, by reason of the Sins and Iniquities which are continually abounding in these Countries.

In consideration of all this, and of the Dangers wherewith this State is threaten'd, which seem to us greater than ever, we have thought fit to turn to the Almighty, on whom alone depends the Success of all our Deliverations, and all our Efforts for the Welfare of the Church and State, and whose Help and Assistance we have so often and so powerfully been sensible of in the Times of Distress: For this Purpose we have appointed a solemn Day of Thanksgiving, Fasting and Prayer throughout all the United Provinces, on the 14th of February next.

The Deputies from Aix la Chapelle are arriv'd at Francfort with the Sword of Charlemain, the Book of the Gospel writ in Gold Letters on Leaves made of the Bark of a Tree, and a rich Chest containing the Relicks of St. Stephen: And the Deputies from Nuremberg have brought thither Charlemain's Imperial Crown, the Swords of that Prince and St. Maurice, the Scepter and Globe of the Empire, the Imperial Mantle, the Dalmatic, the Albe, the Stole, the Buskins, the Gloves and the two Belts.

They write from Berlin, that the King of Prussia, after having concerted the Operations of the next Campaign with the Marshal de Broglie at Prague, went to Glatz, and was to proceed to Breslau to give the necessary Orders for the March of the Troops which are to penetrate thro' Moravia into Lower Austria, in conjunction with the Troops of the Allies, in order to oblige the Velt-marshall de Khevenhuller to abandon his Enterprizes, and to hasten to the Defence of that Province. And Letters of the 16th ult. from Breslau say, that several Prussian Regiments are actually marching from Silesia for Bohemia.

The Duke d'Aiguillon, whom the French King sent to Madrid to accompany Don Philip to Italy, is arriv'd there, and has deliver'd him a Present from his Majesty of a Gold-hilted Sword adorn'd with Diamonds valued at near 100,000 Livres.

According to Letters of the 12th ult. from Vienna, the Queen of Hungary, hearing that Measures are concerting to oblige her to subscribe to the Plan of Partition, has sent a most pressing Letter to the States of Hungary, exhorting them to furnish the promis'd Succours.

'Tis said that Mr. Finch the British Minister, who was preparing to leave the Court of Russia, will stay there some time longer, he having receiv'd fresh Instructions from his Majesty.

They have at Dublin a Model of the great Diamond which the King of Portugal has lately receiv'd from the Braills. 'Tis represented to be in the Shape of a Turkey Egg, but much larger, and valued at 379166 Moydores. But they write from Lisbon, that the more that Diamond is examin'd by the Connoisseurs, the more it suffers in its Valuation; inasmuch that they are ready to give it out to be no Diamond, tho' they have not yet agreed by what Name to call it. Perhaps, say they, it will turn out at last to be but a White Sapphire, which it resembles both in Hardness and Weight.

Last Friday M. Wafenberg, Minister from the King of Sweden, had a private Audience of his Majesty, to deliver his Letters of Credence in that Character; to which he was introduc'd by the Right Hon. the Lord Harrington, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

On Saturday last the Right Rev. Dr. Gilbert Lord Bishop of Llandaff preach'd before the Right Honourable the House of Peers, at St. Peter's Westminster, from Ephes. IV. 6.

As did the Rev. Dr. Strukely before the Hon. House of Commons, at St. Margaret's Westminster, from Lamentations II. 6.

This Day his Excellency James Glenn, Esq; Governor of South Carolina, sets out for Portsmouth, to embark on board the Flamborough Man of War, Capt. Hamer, for his said Government.

On Friday the Rev. Henry Towndrow, M. A. Fellow of Jesus College Cambridge, was presented by the Master and Fellows of the said College to the Vicarage of All Saints in the Town of Cambridge, void by the Promotion of the Rev. Mr. Ramden Dodsworth.

Last Week the Right Hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury appointed Mr. Hughs to be Inner Door-keeper to the Commissioners of the Customs, a Place of 100 l. per Annum.

PROPOSALS for printing by SUBSCRIPTION

January 9. 1741-2.

PROPOSALS for Printing by SUBSCRIPTION,

AN ESSAY on the Agreement between the Works of the Roman Poets, and the REMAINS of the Ancient Sculptors and Painters; being an Attempt to illustrate them mutually from one another.

By the Rev. Mr. SPENCE, late Professor of POETRY, and Fellow of New-College in Oxford.

As the Author is very sensible that the Publick is almost tired out with Subscriptions, he was long unwilling to think of adding to their Distaste of that Method of Publishing; but as his Work is of too Expensive a Nature for him to hazard the Event of it, he finds himself obliged, either to drop all Thoughts of Publishing it, or to try whether the Publick has any Inclination to encourage it. 'Tis for this Reason that he puts out these Proposals.

The Book is intended to be printed in Folio; and there will be about Fifty Prints in it: Which will contain a Collection of some of the most chosen Pictures, Statues, Gems, and Medals of the Ancients.

The Price is a Guinea on Subscribing; and a Guinea on the Receipt of the Book in Sheets.

If there are Five Hundred Subscribers by this Day Twelve-month, the Work shall be then put into the Press; and carried on with all the Dispatch that the Plates will allow of.

If there are not Five Hundred Subscribers by that Time, whatever Money has been paid in, shall be returned with thanks to all those who were willing to have encouraged this Undertaking. By me

JOSEPH SPENCE.

THE HISTORY of the HEAVENS; consider'd according to the Notions of the Poets and PHILOSOPHERS. Compared with the DOCTRINES of MOSES.

In Three Parts.

Part I. Containing the Origin of the Poetical Heaven. In which is clearly demonstrated, that the Gods formerly ador'd by the Heathens were neither Genii nor Men, but Symbols and Hieroglyphical Characters of the particular Seasons, &c. over which those pretended Deities were supposed to preside.

Part II. The Origin of the Heaven of the Philosophers. In which all their General Systems of Nature are examin'd, and prov'd inconsistent and absurd.

Part III. Experimental Demonstrations, that Light, Fire, Air, Water, Sand, Gold, and all Metallick and other Uncompounded Bodies, are so many Elementary Natures, neither capable of Destruction nor of Generation; and, no more than the Organized Species and the whole World, can have had any other Physical Cause than the Will of GOD.

The Whole tending to prove, that what Experience teaches us, on these important Points, exactly corresponds with the Doctrines of Moses.

A Work calculated to inform the Youth who study the Belles Lettres, in the Origin of the Heathen Gods; and to inculcate the Genuine Philosophy, in opposition to the imaginary Mechanisms of the Epicurean and Cartesian Hypotheses.

The Great Carminative.

A most famous Tincture for the Wind Cholick,

In what Part soever lodged; for at once

taking, and in five Minute's Time, it perfectly cures the severest Gripings in the Guts, and immediately expels the Wind from the Stomach or Bowels (as it were) to a Miracle.

For all wandering Pains in any Part soever, which are in some Persons the Forerunners of a fixed Rheumatism, in others the Gout (mistaken many times under the Notion of Spasmodick Ailments) this famous Medicine has not its Fellow, having wrought Wonders in these Cases on great Numbers of People, who, before taking it, could neither sit, stand, nor lie at Ease; but were in intolerable Pain Night and Day, and in taking less than half a Bottle, were absolutely freed from their present Pain, and, by a short Continuance of the Course, recovered to perfect Health again.

As for any Belchings or Hiccups, proceeding from Wind; or, in short, in any Case of Wind, it may be depended on as the best, safest, most expeditious, and most sovereign Remedy ever yet known.

It is sold only by Mr. King, Printseller, in the Postery, near the Royal Exchange, and by Mr. Martin, Hairer, at the Sign of the Duke of Cumberland in Cranbourn-alley, near Leicester-fields, at 3 s. the Bottle.

The Princely beautifying LOTION.

Whose INIMITABLE VIRTUES and TRANSCENDENT EXCELLENCIES have gained it so much Reputation, that envious Imitators endeavour, tho' in vain, to counterfeit it.

It beautifies the Face, Neck, and Hands to the utmost Perfection, and is in the greatest Esteem amongst Ladies, &c. of the first Quality. No Words can sufficiently express its Virtues; for it is not of the Nature of Paint, which puts a false and unnatural Gloss on the Skin; but is a Remedy that, by its Use, really gives a Lustre to the most Beautiful, by throwing the fine Features of the Face, and is so safe, not having the least Grain of Mercury in it, that it may be taken inwardly, and it smells so, is really good against Vapours.

It infallibly kill Worms in the Face, takes away Freckles, Spots, Wrinkles, Pits, or Marks of the Small-Pox, and affords cures any Defects in the Face, giving a charming youthfulness, Lustre and fine Air to the Features, to Admiration.

As for such Persons as are of a swarthy Complexion, or troubled with any disagreeable Redness, Roughness, Morphey, Heats, or the like, it is not to be parallel'd; for it immediately smooths, clears, plumps, nourishes, and whitenes the Skin to the last Degree, and makes those Persons who before look'd short, it far exceeds any thing that was ever yet known or made publick, for clearing and beautifying the Skin.
